GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1.—Find the number of the subscriber you wish to converse with BEFORE ringing up Central.

2.—Call Central by giving TWO SHORT RINGS.

3.—Take down your telephone at once, without waiting for return ring, and listen. Central will reply "Hello." Then give the figures of the number wanted only, as 2-5-6 for 256. Should the line be in use, Central will reply "ENGAGED"; otherwise, "RING."

4.—Hang up your telephone and give one long ring. Take your telephone down again at once and listen.

5.—When called up do not ring back, but take down your telephone and ascertain through the instrument who calls.

6.—When the conversation is ended, only the person who made the call should give one short ring as a signal to disconnect.

N.B.—A strict observance of the above instructions will be to the advantage of both the subscriber and the Company's operatives.

Terms and Conditions of Lease of Instruments

1.—The Company's Lines and Instruments are furnished and maintained for the consideration of a monthly rental, charged to lessees, payable in advance. The ordinary charge for connecting the instruments will be Five Dollars, but connections at a distance from the Company's Lines will be subject to a special arrangement not exceeding cost.

2.—The Lessee shall be at liberty to terminate his connection with the exchange at the expiration of the first three months, or of any subsequent month, upon giving notice ten days in advance of his intention to do so.

3.—The Lessee shall take good care of the instruments and all accessories connected therewith, and shall not damage, alter or remove the same, or allow them to be damaged, altered or removed.

4.—The Lessee shall permit the Company, its agents or workmen, to have access at all times to his premises and every other place, under his control, through or over which its wires or apparatus passes or is fixed.

5.—The Company reserves the right to remove its instruments and accessories from the premises of the Lessee at any time, on returning the unearned rental, if any, if the Lessee makes any improper use of the instruments, or allows any person not a subscriber to use the instrument hereby leased, or fails to pay the said monthly rental and other rates stipulated below, or otherwise fails to comply with the terms of this lease.

6.—The Company will endeavor to furnish as perfect and continuous means of communication between Lessees as possible, but will not be liable for any loss or damage that may occur during or through the connection of any Lessee with any of its exchanges, or through the employment of any messengers, vehicles or other service.

8.—The monthly rentals are for the present fixed at Five Dollars per month, for mercantile or professional purposes, and Four Dollars per month for residential purposes, payable in advance at the Company's agents, the Bank of British Columbia. To incite prompt payments, however, a special rebate of One Dollar per month will be allowed if made on or before the tenth day of the month. All accounts for rentals remaining unpaid after the tenth of the month will be placed in a Collector's hands, whose fees for collection will be payable by the Lessee.
